

Capstone Project - The Battle of Neighborhoods

Introduction (Part1)

Hugo Andérica

May 21, 2020

1 Introduction

New York, nowadays, is home of nearly 9 million people, accounting over the 40% of the population of New York State and slightly lower to the New York metropolitan area, home of over 23 million people. In the last years the city has been growing faster than any other city of the state and leads the metropolitan gateway for legal immigrants admitted into the United States.

In New York's demographics it is shown that it is an enormous diversity in its food, due to the so many cultures that are settled in there. As a result of this diversity there are a many restaurant in New York based on the culture of their owner like Chinese, Taiwanese, Italian etc.

2 Problem

To find the answers to the following questions:

- List and visualize all major parts of New York City that has great Indian restaurants.
- What is the best location in New York for Indian food?
- Which areas have potential Indian restaurants market?
- Which all areas lack Indian restaurants.
- Which is the best place to stay if you prefer Indian food?